2010 COUGAR FOOTBALL SEASON PREVIEW

Cougars to Again Challenge for MWC and National Accolades

MATT REYNOLDS

Coming off their third 11-2 season in the past four years under head coach Bronco Mendenhall, the BYU Cougars look to again challenge for national accolades and the Mountain West Conference title in 2010.

The Cougars finished 2009 ranked No. 12 in the national polls after a 44-20 victory over No. 16 Oregon State in the Maaco Bowl Las Vegas. The win gave BYU its third bowl victory in the last four years—something last accomplished at BYU from 1981-84—as the program continues to rank among the best in the nation under Mendenhall's leadership. Since taking over a BYU program in 2005 that had just gone through three losing seasons, Mendenhall has guided BYU to five straight bowl invitations, two outright Mountain West Conference championships and consistent national top-25 rankings.

In fact, BYU is one of just six programs to be ranked in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll, Associated Press Top-25 and final BCS Standings each of the past four seasons, and one of just five to win 10 or more games each of the past four years. Only four other programs—Boise State (49-4), Florida (48-7), Texas (45-8), and Ohio State (44-8)—have topped BYU's 43-9 record amassed over that span.

In 2010 the Cougars hope to build on the consistency achieved in the program under Mendenhall while replacing three-year starting quarterback Max Hall, consensus All-American tight end Dennis Pitta and all-time leading rusher Harvey Unga. The Cougars will play a schedule that includes nonconference home games with Washington and Nevada and road contests at Florida State and Utah State. The challenging MWC slate includes road games at TCU and Utah, ranked No. 6 and No. 18, respectively, in 2009.

Among 20 offensive and 23 defensive lettermen returning, the 2010 Cougars return 12 starters and seven other players with starting experience. In addition, BYU's specialists are poised to help make a difference as the team's starting punter, place kicker and return specialists are back as well. Listed below is a position-by-position outlook of the 2010 team heading into fall camp.

QUARTERBACK

The biggest question mark entering 2010 for BYU is who will step in to take over at quarterback given three-year starter Max Hall's departure. Four talented candidates are vying for the opportunity to lead BYU's attack. Hall's backup in 2009, junior Riley Nelson, appeared in seven games last year in late action, completing 7-of-10 passes and one touchdown with a strong 186.16 efficiency rating while running for 122 yards (5.8 ypc) and three touchdowns. A transfer with NCAA FBS starting experience, Nelson started the final eight games as a freshman at Utah State in 2006 prior to an LDS Church mission, completing 55 percent of his passes for 925 yards and six touchdowns while rushing for 290 yards. He was a Parade All-American and Deseret News Mr. Football for Utah coming out of high school in 2005. True freshman Jake Heaps out of Skyline High School in Sammamish, Wash., enrolled in January and showed during spring practices that he has the skills to compete for the job in his first year in the program. Ranked the No. 1 quarterback in the nation by Scout.com and the top pro-style signal caller by Rivals.com, Heaps led Skyline High School to three state championships while posting a 40-2 record as a three-year starter. He amassed 9,994 yards passing and completed 63 percent of his passes while connecting on 114 touchdowns with only 18 interceptions. Including 30 rushing touchdowns, he totaled 144 scores overall during his three-year career. Sophomore James Lark (2005 Utah 3A MVP out of Pine View High School in St. George, Utah) returned from a mission to participate in spring ball, while redshirt freshman Jason Munns (2006 Big Nine Co-Player of the Year out of Southridge High School in Kennewick, Wash.) returned to the team after returning from his mission in May.

RUNNING BACK

With three-year starter Harvey Unga withdrawing from school in April (NFL Supplemental Draft, Chicago Bears) and senior fullback Manase Tonga graduating, the BYU backfield will lean on the services of several experienced lettermen and some talented newcomers in 2010. Unga led the MWC with 1,087 yards in 2009 to become BYU's all-time leading rusher with 3,455 career yards gained on the ground, while Tonga was an effective blocker, receiver and team leader. Looking to help fill the void are returning contributors JJ Di Luigi and Bryan

JJ DI LUIGI

Kariya. The two junior backs ran for 248 (5.5 ypc) and 199 (3.6 ypc) yards, respectively, last year in supporting roles while scoring five touchdowns collectively on the ground. Di Luigi added 270 yards and four touchdowns as a receiver while Kariya was also an effective weapon in the pass game with 186 receiving yards and two scores. Kariya, a north-and-south runner, and Di Luigi, a shifty, make-you-miss runner, are both well prepared for increased roles in 2010. Both backs were productive for the Cougars last year in Unga's absence, including the team's season-opening win over No. 3 Oklahoma with Unga sidelined with an injury. Mike Hague, who played as a freshman prior to his mission before being injured last year, will lend his experience to the lineup. Several others, including some talented incoming freshmen, could also challenge for time on the field. Among the newcomers, mid-year enrollee Joshua Quezada impressed during spring practices as the team's top ground gainer.

The Cougars return the entire depth chart at the wide receiver positions. Texas-product McKay Jacobson, who totaled 528 receiving yards and three touchdowns as a freshman in 2006 prior to serving an LDS Church mission, ranked behind only Pitta in receiving yards as a sophomore in 2009 despite missing four games due to an injury. The speedy receiver totaled 556 yards and four touchdowns while averaging 24.2 yards per catch to rank No. 4 in the nation among all receivers who averaged at least one catch per game. He was one of 10 players in the nation with two or more receptions over 70 yards in 2009. O'Neill Chambers started on the other side and returns for his junior campaign after contributing 376 yards and one touchdown in 2009. The 6-foot-2, 210-pound wideout is a physical player who has been a primary return specialist the past two years as well. Senior Luke Ashworth and junior Spencer Hafoka totaled 387 and 155 receiving yards, respectively, last year while combining for five touchdowns as key players in the rotation. Several other talented players will also challenge for time, including redshirt freshman Cody Hoffman (6-4, 200) and incoming freshman Ross Apo (6-4, 190).

TIGHT END

BYU boasted arguably the strongest tight end combination in the country last year in consensus All-American Dennis Pitta and second-team All-Mountain West

MCKAY JACOBSON

BRADEN HANSEN

ROMNEY FUGA

JORDAN PENDLETON

VIC SO'OTO

Conference standout Andrew George. With those two players preparing for futures in the NFL, BYU will miss their collective experience; however, Cougar coaches have a stable of talented players competing for playing time at a position utilized well in the BYU attack. Two freshmen who redshirted behind Pitta and George last season—Mike Muehlmann (6-4, 227) and Richard Wilson (6-2, 238)—are ready to make their impact, while two other recently returned missionaries—Devin Mahina (6-6, 225) and Marcus Mathews (6-4, 200)—showed during spring practices that they will be in the mix as freshman this fall. Wilson signed in 2009 as the nation's No. 4 tight end prospect. Several other talented prospects, including Austin Holt (6-6, 230) and Bryan Sampson (6-4, 210), will compete in fall camp at a position BYU's coaches feel will be very good again in 2010.

OFFENSIVE LINE

One key to BYU's offensive success last year was the outstanding play of its offensive line after replacing four starters. In 2010 the front line of BYU's attack will return intact except for center R.J. Willing who was lost to graduation. All-America candidate and first-team All-MWC left tackle Matt Reynolds returns after earning Freshman All-America and All-Sophomore Team national accolades over his first two seasons. Other returning starters include junior guard Terence Brown (All-Sophomore Team honorable mention in 2009), sophomore guard Braden Hansen (Freshman All-American in 2009) and senior tackle Nick Alletto. Add to the mix senior guard/tackle Jason Speredon, who was a projected starter last year before a season-ending injury, and redshirt freshman center/guard Houston Reynolds, who was on the two-deep in fall camp before his own season-ending setback, and the Cougars should have a solid group up front. Other players returning who contributed last year include juniors Marco Thorson and Ryan Freeman, both able to play guard or center, and sophomore tackle Braden Brown, who earned two starts in 2009 after converting from tight end mid season. While several of the group missed part or all of spring practices while recovering from surgeries, the offensive line should be a strong unit for the Cougars in 2010 after a solid 2009 campaign.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Cougars will be replacing several starters on the defensive line but have some experienced players ready to step in. Gone is four-year starter Jan Jorgensen, who finished as the MWC's all-time sack and tackle-for-loss leader, along with starting end Brett Denney (graduation) and part-time starting tackle Russell Tialavea (mission). The Cougars return junior Romney Fuga to anchor the nose position. Fuga (6-1, 295) started seven games after returning from a mission while sharing starts with Tialavea. A solid run stopper, Fuga will be joined by 2007 starter Eathyn Manumaleuna (6-2, 280), who is returning from his missionary service and could play either tackle or end for the Cougars. Two-year letterman Matt Putnam (6-6, 255) is poised to earn the starting nod at right end while three-year letter winner Vic So'oto (6-3, 265) has been impressive at left end in Jorgensen's absence. Freshmen Thomas Bryson had a strong spring after a redshirt season in 2009 forced by injury. He is likely to make an impact in his first season on the field. Several incoming freshman are also expected to challenge for playing time and could become contributors on the defensive front.

LINEBACKERS

BYU is replacing three of four starters in 2010 with the departure of inside linebackers Matt Bauman and Shawn Doman and outside backer Coleby Clawson. Junior Jordan Pendleton, who moved from defensive back to the strong-side linebacker position last year, returns as an athletic backer who is poised for a big season. In 2009 he totaled 52 tackles, six tackles for loss, three sacks and five quarterback hurries while adding a fumble recovery, an interception and three pass breakups. The 6-foot-2, 228-pound Pendleton will be joined by some new faces in the linebacking corp. Senior Jordan Atkinson backed up Clawson in 2009 after transferring to BYU and is ready to step into a starting assignment. Other outside backers challenging will be junior Jameson Frazier (6-2, 201) and mid-year freshman enrollee Kyle Van Noy (6-4, 209). Inside, sophomore Brandon Ogletree (5-11, 222) and senior Shane Hunter (5-10, 236) saw action as reserves last year and will compete with some talented newcomers, including junior transfer Aveni Leung-Wai (6-1, 220), freshman Zac Stout (6-2, 220) and sophomore returned missionary Austen Jorgensen (6-3, 230). While the experience level will be missed at linebacker, the talent level should be strong. How well this group comes together will be an important factor in what many believe will be a stronger Cougar defensive unit in 2010.

SECONDARY

BYU's secondary is as deep and talented as any in recent memory. Three of four starters return with the free safety position being the one void the coaches will need to fill for 2010. Starting free safety Scott Johnson graduated and backup Craig Bills departed for a two-year mission. Returning is second-team All-MWC strong safety Andrew Rich. The senior led the team with 85 tackles, including 51 solo takedowns in 2009, and was sixth in the MWC with four interceptions for 91 return yards. The hard hitter forced two fumbles in BYU's win over No. 3 Oklahoma and added 3.5 tackles for loss and one sack among his many statistical highlights. A strong leader, he could play either safety position in 2010. The corners return starters Brian Logan and Brandon Bradley. Both seniors in 2010, Logan was an SportsIllustrated.com All-America honorable mention in 2009 after ranking second (tied) nationally with 17 passes defended (including three picks), while Bradley was fourth on the team with 64 tackles and forced two fumbles with four pass breakups from his boundary corner role. Reserves who made solid contributions in 2009 include junior boundary corner Corby Eason, senior field corner Lee Aguirre and sophomore field corner Robbie Buckner. Each could play a strong role in the defensive backfield for BYU in 2010. Players expected to compete for time at safety include redshirt freshman Jay Galea'i, junior two-year lettermen Steven Thomas and Travis Uale as well as senior two-year letterman Landon Jaussi. Some talented newcomers will add to an experienced and solid unit for BYU in 2010.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Senior kicker Mitch Payne, the MWC career leader, in returns for his final season as BYU's primary field goal and PAT kicker. Last year he made 10-of-14 field goals and converted 59-of-61 PATs. Showing extreme consistency, he has had identical field-goal numbers in 2007, 2008 and 2009. He has a career log of 49 yards.

The punting duties rest on the capable foot of a 2009 All-MWC honorable mention performer, returning starter Riley Stephenson. The versatile sophomore had a strong freshman campaign, averaging 41.3 yards per kick with eight boots resting inside the 20 and eight more booming longer than 50 yards when he could unleash his strong leg. His long punt traveled 60 yards entirely through the air until landing out of bounds to not allow a return from TCU all-league returner Jeremy Kerley. O'Neill Chambers is back as the team's primary return specialist. He averaged 25.6 yards on kick returns to rank second in the MWC and No. 34 nationally last year after helping the Cougars rank No. 9 nationally in kickoff returns at 24.6 yards per return as a freshman. A fearless punt returner, Chambers had a long return of 43 yards to go along with his long kick return of 97 yards. Fellow receiver Spencer Hafoka (8.5 punt return average) as well as running back JJ Di Luigi (24.0 kick return average) also return along with the ever-dangerous option of McKay Jacobson as a return specialist. Redshirt freshman JD Falslev could be a strong punt returner as well. The Cougars should be well served in 2010 by its specialists.

MITCH PAYNE

WORTH NOTING

-BYU has a proven system in place under Bronco Mendenhall. Over the last four years, BYU is 43-9. Only four teams in the country have achieved more wins over that span (Boise State, Florida, Texas, Ohio State). Including his first season of 6-6 after taking over a program with three straight losing seasons, BYU is 49-15. Only 11 teams have more wins during the last five years while BYU has averaged 9.8 wins per year.

-BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall ranks No. 4 among active FBS coaches for best winning percentage (minimum of five years) with a .766 success rate (49-15 record). Only Urban Meyer of Florida (.842), Bob Stoops of Oklahoma (.801) and Mark Richt of Georgia (.769) have better winning percentages than Mendenhall among coaches with at least five years as a head coach.

-BYU returns six offensive starters, including four of five offensive line starters and the team's top four wide receivers from 2009.

-BYU's incoming recruiting class ranked No. 22 in the nation. Headlined by No. 1 QB Jake Heaps, eight Cougar recruits rated among the top 25 of their respective positions.

-WR McKay Jacobson is a big-play threat who missed four games due to injury in 2009. He still totaled 556 receiving yards (24.2 per catch, 61.8 per game) and was one of 10 players in the nation with two or more receptions over 70 yards in 2009. His 24.2 yards per catch ranked No. 4 nationally among players who averaged at least one catch per game.

-O'Neill Chambers was second on the team with 32 catches and also served as the team's primary return specialist (25.6 average on kick returns was second in MWC and No. 34 in nation).

-BYU returns three of four starters in its secondary, including All-MWC Second Team safety Andrew Rich and field corner Brian Logan, who was an SI.com All-America honorable mention after ranking second (tied) nationally with 17 passes defended.

-BYU has earned a final spot in the national polls each of the past four seasons to match the longest streak in program history. The only prior four-season streak was achieved from 1989-1992 under LaVell Edwards.

-In 2009 BYU replaced seven offensive starters (including All-American receiver Austin Collie), four defensive starters and two key specialists and was able to achieve an 11-2 record for the third time in four seasons, including a 3-1 mark against nationally ranked opponents. In 2010 BYU will be replacing five offensive starters and six defensive starters while returning all its key specialists. Helping to fill the voids, BYU returns five offensive reserves and two defensive reserves from a year ago with starting experience. In addition, defensive lineman Eathyn Manumaleuna, who started every game as a freshman in 2007, returns from a mission.

-BYU finished No. 12 in the final polls in 2009. BYU is one of only six schools nationally to be ranked in both final polls and the final BCS standings each of the last four years. The Cougars are the only team to do so from a non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference.

-BYU is one of only five teams to win 10 or more games each of the last four seasons (others are Ohio State, Boise State, Texas, Virginia Tech).

During his five seasons as the head coach at Brigham Young University, Bronco Mendenhall has returned the Cougars to the ranks of the nation's top teams. Taking over a BYU program in 2005 that was coming off three losing seasons, Mendenhall has guided his teams to five straight bowl invitations, two outright Mountain West Conference championships and consistent national top-25 rankings.

Under his leadership, the Cougars have earned a 49-15 record--the best record of any first-time head coach over the past five seasons and a mark topped by only 11 programs overall. Mendenhall's .766 winning percentage ranks No. 4 among all active FBS head coaches with at least five years experience. Mendenhall has led BYU to bowl wins in three of the last four years while achieving a 43-9 record in that span, a ledger topped by only four teams--Boise State, Florida, Texas and Ohio State. In doing so, the Cougars have achieved four straight seasons with 10 or more wins for the first time in school history. Only Boise State, Ohio State, Texas and Virginia Tech have equaled BYUs consistency in recording double-digit wins each of the last four seasons.

While recording an 11-2 record and 7-1 league mark, Mendenhall's 2009 team went 3-1 against ranked opponents, including a 14-13 season-opening win over No. 3 Oklahoma and a 44-20 season finale Maaco Bowl Las Vegas victory over No. 16 Oregon State. BYU finished No. 12 in the final polls to earn its highest finish since 1996 and earn the distinction of being one of only six programs nationally to be ranked in both the final polls the past four seasons. At No. 14 in the final 2009 BCS Standings, Mendenhall's Cougars are one of just seven programs to finish in the final BCS Standings the past four years and the only program to do so from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference.

In his first season, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-5 regular-season record and earned an invitation to the Maaco Bowl Las Vegas--the team's first postseason bowl appearance in three seasons. Over the next two seasons, he coached the Cougars to back-to-back 11-win seasons and claimed consecutive MWC titles with a combined record of 16-0 against league opponents.

In 2008, BYU posted a 10-2 regular season to achieve three straight 10-win seasons for only the third time in school history. In doing so, Mendenhall's teams became the first in Cougar history to go unbeaten at home over three consecutive seasons. While defending its home turf in 2008, BYU produced many memorable moments, including a 59-0 win over 2007 Maaco Bowl Las Vegas opponent UCLA. In 2009 with wins over three ranked teams including No. 3 Oklahoma, BYU strengthen its standing among the nations top football programs with its third 11-2 season in the past four years under Mendenhall.

From his first day as a head coach, Mendenhall has stressed the importance of winning at home. After finishing 3-3 in Provo during the 2005 season, Mendenhall and the Cougars went on to register perfect 6-0 records each of the next three seasons. In 2006, the Cougars finished the season as the most dominate home team in the country, and the most dominate home team in BYU football history, winning games by an average 35.16 points per game. In 2008 BYU won at home by 30.16 points per game. In 2007, the Cougars allowed just 11.3 points per game, marking the best scoring defense effort since the 1988 season when BYU held opponents to just 10.2 points per game.

The Cougars have received five straight bowl invitations for the first time since a string of 17 consecutive bowls invitations from 1978 through 1994. Mendenhall is the only coach in BYU football history to take his first five teams to a bowl game.

Bronco Mendenhall is the first BYU coach to take his teams to bowl games in each of his first five seasons. His .766 winning percentage ranks No. 4 among all active FBS head coaches with at least five years experience.

On November 17, 2007, Mendenhall led the Cougars to a 35-10 victory over Wyoming to record his 25th career win. With the victory, Mendenhall became the only coach in BYU football history to win 25 games in his first 35 attempts.

Following the 2006 season, Mendenhall was named the American Football Coaches Association Region IV Coach of the Year. In addition, Mendenhall was named by the Football Writers Association of America one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

Off the field, BYU has had five different Academic All-America citations in the past two seasons. In 2008, only Penn State (4) placed more student-athletes on the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America First Team. Cougar starters David Oswald (offensive tackle), Matt Bauman (linebacker) and Kellen Fowler (safety) each earned the high honor as BYU had three first-teamers for the first time during the same season. In 2009 Scott Johnson earned first-team honors and Bauman was a second-team selection.

Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell. Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the

“If that’s how his (Bronco Mendenhall) teams are going to play in his tenure here, they are going to have some great football teams.”

- Gary Patterson,
TCU Head Football Coach

secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss against UCLA in the Las Vegas Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round NFL Draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his collegiate career ranked third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season he earned many accolades, including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team's most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. They have three sons.

TOM HOLMOE

Director of Athletics

Tom Holmoe was named Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University on March 1, 2005. He oversees a nationally recognized program with 21 intercollegiate sports, involving more than 600 student-athletes and a 150-person staff.

Since Holmoe's appointment, BYU has captured 58 Mountain West Conference regular-season or postseason championships, and more than 100 student-athletes have earned All-America status. Over the past four years, both the football and men's basketball teams have enjoyed tremendous success. In fact, BYU is the only school in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision to win at least 10 football games and 25 basketball games in each of the last four seasons (2006-10).

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletics Director for Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation, served on the BYU Alumni Association Board of Directors and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the University's new athletic facilities. Holmoe currently serves on the BCS Athletics Directors Advisory Committee.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He became a starter as a sophomore and went on to earn first-team All-WAC honors as a senior in 1982. Holmoe was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Over a seven-year NFL career, he played on three Super Bowl championship teams with the 49ers. After retiring from professional football, Holmoe returned to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards from 1990-91. He then accepted an offer from Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. In 1994, he returned to the 49ers as defensive backfield coach for two seasons, where he earned a fourth Super Bowl ring. Two years later Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator and later became the head coach from 1997-2001.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in athletic administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, have four children: Shannon Packard, Danny, Erik, and Lauren.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

THE BYU HISTORY

The 1875 establishment of the Brigham Young Academy offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into 560 acres and 97 academic buildings. The foundation of the University thrives with the fourfold focus of being 1) spiritually strengthening, 2) intellectually enlarging, 3) character building, leading to 4) lifelong learning and service.

Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

BYU has a full-time enrollment of 32,955. Students come to BYU from all 50 states and more than 120 countries.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University--founded, supported and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints--is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenges and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty and service to mankind.

BYU's faculty, staff, students and administrators should be anxious to make their service and scholarship available to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in furthering its work worldwide. In an era of limited enrollments, BYU can continue to expand its influence both by encouraging programs that are central to the Church's purposes and by making its resources available to the Church when called upon to do so.

We believe the earnest pursuit of this institutional mission can have a strong effect on the course of higher education and will greatly enlarge Brigham Young University's influence in a world we wish to improve.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and wide-ranging as they pursue consequential research work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regularly called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

PREPARATION FOR THE FUTURE

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges -- supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education -- continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study abroad centers, distance-learning courses and worldwide performing arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

BYU's campus is in Provo, Utah, a city of 124,496 located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City. Provo sits 4,560 feet above sea level and rests between 23-mile-long Utah Lake and the towering peaks of the Wasatch Mountains. The 560-acre campus has 295 total buildings; 87 for academics, 58 for administration and 150 for housing.

COUGARS ON MISSIONS

One of the first questions Bronco Mendenhall was asked after becoming the head coach at BYU was what he thought about the missionary program and if he felt it helped or hurt the BYU football program.

“Serving missions is what makes this team, this university and the Church unique,” Mendenhall said. “These unique characteristics are based upon sound principles and values. Why would we not embrace them?”

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. Since the organization of the Church in 1830, over one million missionaries have served.

The Church operates 344 missions around the world in 145 nations, speaking 164 languages. A mission covers a geographic area and has a central headquarters. Each is presided over by a mission president, who is called from the ranks of the Church membership to serve for a period of three years. The mission president directs the work of the missionaries assigned to his mission.

More than 51,000 missionaries representing The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints are serving proselytizing missions in 344 missions around the world. Seventy-five percent of the Church’s proselytizing missionaries are young men between the ages of 19 and 26. A substantial number of young women and older couples also serve proselytizing missions.

Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week for two years or 18 months for women and couples—teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

In addition, about 5,100 individuals (including couples) are given special service assignments. Health specialists and doctors go to developing countries where the Church’s health services program teaches preventive care. Craftsmen, artisans and construction supervisors train members in local building projects. Agricultural experts train people to produce food more effectively and economically. Other mission assignments include education, family history research and leadership training.

The missionaries and/or their families donate money to the Church to pay for their personal expenses. When his or her assignment is completed, the missionary returns home to pursue vocational, academic or other personal goals. Aside from their brief orientation at a missionary training center, missionaries receive little formal training for their ministry. Missionary preparation comes primarily from personal study and, in many cases, from examples taught in the home from childhood.

Of the student-athletes slated to participate in 2010, 74 (62 percent) have served full-time, two-year missions in numerous countries around the world, including Australia, Brazil, Madagascar, Chile, England, Germany, Honduras, Japan, Philippines, India, Russia, Samoa, South Africa and Sweden—just to name a few. Another 51 are currently serving as missionaries.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church are found in more than 160 nations and territories. With nearly 14 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.lds.org.

With the donations and support of nearly 5,000 members nationwide, the Cougar Club has helped BYU build one of America's strongest collegiate athletic programs. Through its fund-raising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is ensuring the future success of BYU athletics.

Loyal Cougar Club members across America are building the foundation for BYU's future athletic victories. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of the Cougar Club and its members becomes an even more important key to the future growth of BYU athletics.

"The BYU donors and fans make all the difference," says Cougar Club Executive Director Michael Middleton. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital projects, including:

- Funding the entire athletic program's recruiting expenses, helping BYU coaches to attract some of the world's premier athletes to Provo, Utah.
- Building new facilities including the Indoor Practice Facility, Student Athlete Building and Miller Baseball/Softball complex.
- Supporting the Student Athlete Academic Center, which includes sponsoring academic tutoring for student athletes, providing laptop computers for the athletes to use when traveling and sustaining an endowment that provides spring/summer and post-eligibility scholarships that assist current and former athletes to finish their degrees.

MEMBER BENEFITS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Individuals and businesses annually make tax-deductible Cougar Club contributions of between $50 and $1,000 based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. To acknowledge the generosity of Club members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Club members, including priority seating, parking passes and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs.

COUGAR CLUB BENEFITS

- Seating priority for home and away sporting events, bowl games and postseason tournaments
- Tax deduction
- Parking passes
- Cougar Club Newsletter and athletic publications
- Monthly luncheons with BYU coaches and athletes
- Invitation to annual Y-Awards Banquet
- Privileges for Club events and Club travel
- Annual "Meet the Team" football reception
- Discounts on exclusive BYU merchandise and commemorative memorabilia

STUDENT ATHLETE BUILDING

◀ EQUIPMENT AND LOCKER ROOMS

The 75-yard-long locker room is patterned after the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. There is also a special locker room for former BYU players who want to train in Provo during the offseason.

TRAINING FACILITIES

Sponsored by Dynatronics, this area features a rehabilitation room and a hydro area with a cold pool, a hot tub with power jets, a treadmill pool with two cameras and a doctor's office. Trainers provide electrical stimulation and ultra sound treatments as well as bikes, treadmills and Cybex machines.

◀ STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING CENTER

Most of the Strength and Conditioning Center's equipment was custom built by Free Motion and is sponsored by Icon Health and Fitness. Among the features are 12 full power racks with platforms, seven half racks, three jerk racks, Sorinex hurricane racks, reverse hypers, Agaton Fitness Systems, an outdoor mondo plyometric warmup area, two super leg drive sleds, two different dumbbell areas and a medicine ball wall. The first floor also has a nutrition area sponsored by Pharmanex. The second floor is the speed development area and has Tomahawk spinning bikes and TVs, five Nordic Track incline trainers, three Versaclimbers, two Scifit upper body bikes, Woodway force treadmills, H/P Cosmos treadmills with Pneu Weight devices, vibratory boards, a step mill, a turf agility drill area with resistance and a testing area.

◀ STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC CENTER

Tutors and mentors work through these offices. Athletes have access to 42 computer stations, an interactive classroom, 10 small study areas and one large quiet room. Also on staff are a sports psychologist and a nutritionist.

LEGENDS GRILLE

Fans, coaches and athletes can view 11 plasma TV screens, a ticker tape with world wide sports scores or view specialty events on a projection screen while catching a bite to eat.

◀ INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

The IPF is 422 feet wide and 222 feet deep with a height of 86 feet at the center (106,000 square feet). Among its features are two artificial turf fields (55 yards & 65 yards), retractable goalposts on each end, a sideline staging facility for offensive linemen and four batting cages. The indoor surface is field turf and the building features four video platforms located 40 feet above the playing surface. The IPF serves as an indoor practice arena for the football, soccer, golf, baseball and softball teams and a variety of other sports programs, including extramurals and intramurals.

With its 64,045-seat capacity, huge video scoreboards and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 30 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

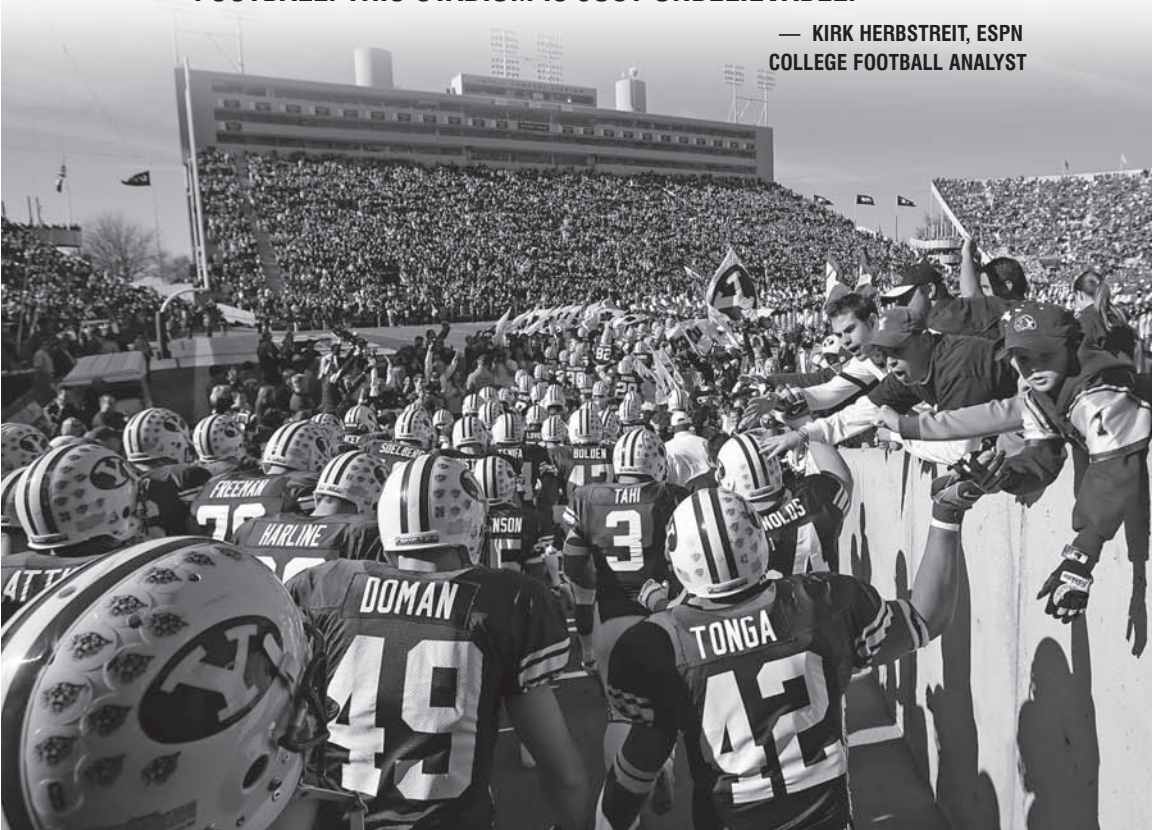

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

EXPANSION/SEATING CAPACITY

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003 BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045.

"YOU GUYS WILL AGREE THAT [LAVELL EDWARDS] STADIUM IS ONE OF THE PRETTIEST SETTINGS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL. THIS STADIUM IS JUST UNBELIEVABLE."

THE MWC – AN ELITE FOOTBALL CONFERENCE

The MWC is the first non-automatic-qualifying conference in the BCS era to have three teams ranked in the top 25 of the final Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' polls, doing so in both 2008 and 2009. The MWC is also one of three conferences (Big 10, SEC) with two teams in the top twelve of the final 2009 polls. In addition, the MWC sent five teams to bowl games for the third consecutive year.

BYU: BEST IN THE MOUNTAIN WEST

Mountain West Conference Championships
(Includes Regular Season & Tournament Championship Titles)

Source: Mountain West Conference 2010

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West Conference has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MWC continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. The MWC has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics. The Mountain West Conference is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Utah, BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas and the Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State. The southwestern flavor of New Mexico complements the western heritage and culture of Fort Worth, Texas, home of the MWC's newest member, TCU. The Mountain West Conference was conceived when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. Five of the MWC's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (BYU, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV entered the fold in 1996 and TCU began its first year of competition in 2005-06, completing the membership in the MWC as it stands in 2009. In 2011, Boise State will join the MWC and Utah will leave the conference. The summer of 2006 saw the historic launch of The Mtn. – the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference. The Mtn. provides sports fans coverage of MWC athletics across multiple sports, including football, men's and women's basketball, and men's and women's Olympic sports in addition to original programming.

MAJOR ACHIEVEMENTS: 2009 In Review

In a season featuring several signature victories, BYU achieved an 11-2 record and No. 12 final ranking in the national polls while strengthening its tradition as one of the nation's top football programs.

The Cougars opened the season with a 14-13 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in Dallas and finished with a 44-20 triumph over No. 16 Oregon State in the Maaco Bowl Las Vegas, going 3-1 overall against nationally ranked opponents including an 26-23 overtime win over No. 19 Utah.

With a 7-1 Mountain West Conference record, BYU was the runner-up to No. 4 TCU in league play, suffering its lone conference defeat at the hands of the Horned Frogs. The team's only other setback was a loss to Florida State in legendary coach Bobby Bowden's final season.

The Cougars went 5-2 against bowl teams in 2009 with wins over Oklahoma, Utah, Air Force, Wyoming and Oregon State and losses to TCU and Florida State. BYU earned its highest-ever final BSC standing at No. 14 heading into the best matchup ever in the Las Vegas Bowl. Making their fifth consecutive bowl trip to Las Vegas, the Cougars were the highest-ranked team to ever play in the game at No. 15 in the AP and 14 in the coaches' poll, while the Beavers entered the contest ranked No. 16 (AP) and No. 20 (USA Today) in the national polls and No. 18 in the final BCS standings to create the first matchup of ranked teams in the bowl's history.

BYU dominated the Pac-10 second-place Beavers to earn the Cougars' third bowl victory in the last four years—something last accomplished by BYU teams during a four-year span from 1981-1984. BYU made its fifth straight bowl appearance for the first time since a string of 17 consecutive bowls invitations from 1978 through 1994. BYU head coach Mendenhall is the only coach in BYU football history to take his first five teams to a bowl game.

The Cougars are one of only six schools nationally to be ranked in both final polls and the final BCS standings each of the last four years and the only program to do so from a non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference. With a 43-9 record over the last four years, BYU has won more games than all but four teams in the country (Boise State, Florida, Texas, and Ohio State).

Individually, seven members of the BYU football team were named to the 2009 All-Mountain West Conference teams while six other Cougars received honorable mention.

Senior tight end Dennis Pitta was a unanimous first-team selection and was joined on the first unit by senior defensive end Jan Jorgensen, junior running back Harvey Unga and sophomore offensive tackle Matt Reynolds. Pitta and Jorgensen earned the unique distinction of being first-team selections for the third time as both also earned top recognition in 2007 and 2008. They are two of only six players in league history to earn first-team honors three times during their respective careers.

Senior quarterback Max Hall, senior tight end Andrew George and junior safety Andrew Rich were named to the league's second team. Cougars receiving honorable mention include senior linebacker Coleby Clawson, senior defensive end Brett Denney, senior safety Scott Johnson, senior center R.J. Willing, junior cornerback Brian Logan and freshman punter Riley Stephenson.

Pitta and TCU defensive lineman Jerry Hughes were the only unanimous selections, an honor both achieved last year as well. With Pitta's selection, BYU claimed first-team tight end honors each of the past five seasons with Pitta earning the past three awards following Jonny Harline's back-to-back honors in 2005 and 2006. In 2009 BYU claimed both first- and second-team tight end accolades with George receiving second-team recognition.

This marked the first time in MWC history both selections have been garnered by players from the same team.

After second-team honors last year, Unga led the MWC in rushing in 2009 to earn his place on the first team. Hall earned all-conference selection each of his three seasons leading the BYU offense, receiving first-team accolades in 2007 and second-team recognition the past two seasons.

Reynolds, George and Rich were first-time selections to the All-MWC teams, and Reynolds became only the second sophomore to earn first-team offensive lineman accolades since the inception of the MWC.

During the season several BYU players set several records. Among them, Hall passed Ty Detmer as the BYU quarterback with the most wins as a starter. He has led the Cougars to 32 wins in his three seasons behind center. Harvey Unga became the school's all-time leading rusher with his third straight

1,000-yard season. All-American tight end Dennis Pitta set school records for tight end receiving yards and overall receptions while also setting a new NCAA record for most career receiving yards by a tight end.

Pitta headlined the individual accolades as an NCAA Consensus All-American while being named to 10 different All-America teams. One of three finalists for the Mackey Award, Pitta led all tight ends in receiving yards with 829 yards.

With the team's third 11-2 season in the last four years, Mendenhall finished the season ranked No. 4 among active FBS coaches for best winning percentage with a .766 success rate at 49-15 overall. Only Urban Meyer of Florida (.842), Bob Stoops of Oklahoma (.801) and Mark Richt of Georgia (.769) have better winning percentages than Mendenhall among coaches with at least five years as a head coach.

NO. 20 BYU- 14 NO. 3 OKLAHOMA- 13

BYU VS. OKLAHOMA RECAP

Led by a strong defensive effort and quarterback Max Hall's 329 yards passing, No. 20 BYU defeated No. 3 Oklahoma, 14-13, in the first college game played in the new Dallas Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. A sellout crowd of 75,437 filled Cowboys Stadium as the Cougars earned their first victory over a top-3 ranked team since defeating No. 1 Miami on Sept. 8, 1990. Hall connected on touchdowns to tight end Andrew George and wide receiver McKay Jacobson, while All-American tight end Dennis Pitta hauled in a game-high 90 receiving yards on seven catches. The Cougar defense held Oklahoma without a first down on four of the Sooners' first six possessions of the game. Heisman Trophy winner Sam Bradford and the Sooners marched 52 yards in six plays to go up 10-7 on a 35-yard field goal with just 2 seconds before the half. Despite the score, the drive proved costly to Oklahoma as linebacker Coleby Clawson hit Bradford on two consecutive plays. Injuring his AC-joint, Bradford did not return. With OU enjoying a first-and-goal at the 2-yard line early in the fourth quarter, linebacker Jordan Pendleton broke up a pass on first down and nose tackle Romney Fuga and defensive end Brett Denney led back-to-back stuffs on two ensuing rushes to force the field goal. Building on the momentum of the strong defensive display, the Cougar offense chewed up nearly nine minutes while going 78 yards for the game-winning drive. After Hall used a nice touch to loft a pass to Jacobson alone in the back of the end zone, junior Mitch Payne converted the PAT to secure the winning margin with 3:03 to go.

NO.9 BYU- 54 TULANE- 3

BYU VS. TULANE RECAP

Max Hall passed for more than 300 yards in just over three quarters of action as No. 9 BYU crushed Tulane 54-3 in the Louisiana Superdome. BYU held the Green Wave to not only a single field goal but also 162 yards of total offense. Offensively, Hall directed an attack that amassed 527 yards with a strong balance of 321 yards through the air and 206 on the ground. The senior signal caller completed 26-of-34 passes for 321 yards and two touchdowns. He connected with 11 different receivers before leaving the game early in the fourth quarter. Bryan Kariya picked up where he left off against Oklahoma with 63 yards on 12 carries and a touchdown, while JJ Di Luigi had a breakout game with 71 yards on 12 carries and two touchdowns. McKay Jacobson led all receivers with 79 yards, including his second touchdown catch of the season. BYU took a 6-0 lead early in the second quarter when Payne converted from 20 yards to cap a 13-play, 86-yard drive. BYU put together back-to-back drives of 80 or more yards in the third quarter to extend the lead to 34-3. Hall directed a 13-play, 89-yard march to pay dirt on BYU's second possession of the second half with Di Luigi recording his first career touchdown. The next time the Cougars got the ball Hall found Jacobson over the top for a 38-yard scoring play. Jordan Pendleton picked up a fumble and returned it 12 yards for a touchdown. Backup quarterback Riley Nelson entered the game at the 10:15 mark and led BYU 19 yards to the end zone, taking it in himself from the 1-yard line for the game's final touchdown.

FLORIDA STATE- 54 NO. 7 BYU- 28

BYU VS. FLORIDA STATE RECAP

In a barrage of points and offense, Florida State defeated No. 7 BYU, 54-28, to snap the Cougars' 18-game home win streak in front of 64,209 fans at LaVell Edwards Stadium. McKay Jacobson had a career day in front of the 13th-straight Edwards Stadium sellout crowd, using a career-long 80-yard touchdown catch to finish with 111 yards, the young sophomore's single-game best. His score came on the first play of a new BYU possession late in the third quarter, resulting in a scoring drive of 12 seconds. Senior quarterback Max Hall finished the night 20-for-31 for 306 yards and two touchdowns, but was hindered by three interceptions. In his first substantial action back from a hamstring injury, junior Harvey Unga led the Cougar ground attack, rushing for 97 yards on 10 carries for 9.7 yards per carry, including his first touchdown of the season minutes into the second quarter. Unga took a handoff up the middle, then switched directions, sweeping around the left side of the line for the 12-yard score, cutting the Florida State lead to 13-7. After another Seminole score, Hall led the Cougar offense on an 8-play, 80-yard drive. He completed 5-of-6 passes for 54 yards to five different receivers, capping the scoring drive with a three-yard pass to Manase Tonga. Hall was replaced in the fourth quarter by Riley Nelson who had a 29-yard touchdown pass to JJ DiLuigi.

9.26.09 PROVO, UTAH (The Mtn.)

COLORADO STATE- 23 NO. 19 BYU- 42

BYU VS. COLORADO ST. RECAP

A quick start in the first quarter propelled No. 19 BYU over Colorado State, 42-23, to open Mountain West Conference play with a win. The Cougar offense scored all three first quarter touchdowns on drives of less than forty seconds, with each possession taking just two plays thanks to the defensive and special teams units. On Colorado State's first possession, the Cougar defense stepped up when junior defensive back Brian Logan intercepted a pass, taking it 20 yards to the CSU 15-yard line, setting up a touchdown run by Harvey Unga. Andrew Rich picked off Ram quarterback Grant Stucker for the second time in the quarter. Max Hall finished the drive himself, walking into the end zone with three minutes remaining in the quarter. Hall added two touchdown passes to his own run, completing 18-of-29 passes for 241 yards and two interceptions. BYU special teams' Matt Marshall blocked a punt that went out of bounds at the Ram 17. Unga rumbled in from five yards for his second touchdown of the game two plays later. Coleby Clawson, Vic So'oto and Romney Fuga each picked up sacks for the Cougars. On the day, tight end Dennis Pitta caught four passes, surpassing Hall of Famer Gordon Hudson to become the Cougars' all-time receptions leader among tight ends with 180. Sophomore wide receiver Spencer Hafoka scored the first touchdown of his career late in the fourth quarter.

UTAH STATE- 17 NO. 20 BYU- 35

BYU VS. UTAH ST. RECAP

No. 20 BYU kept its win streak alive against Utah State, beating the Aggies for the 10th time in a row, 35-17, in the team's last nonconference game of the season. With the win, the Cougars maintain the Old Wagon Wheel which is held by the winner of the in-state BYU-Utah State rivalry. Max Hall completed 16-of-23 passes for 218 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions. Harvey Unga recorded his second-straight game of over 100 yards rushing, totaling 118 yards on 21 carries. Junior wide receiver Luke Ashworth, who recorded his first start of the 2009 season, led all BYU receivers with a career-high 90 yards receiving on five catches and picked up his first career touchdown early in the second quarter. All-American tight end Dennis Pitta scored BYU's first touchdown of the night to tie the game, 7-7 late in the first quarter. With less than two minutes in the second quarter, Hall found Ashworth for a 48-yard touchdown. Capitalizing on a turnover, Manase Tonga scored from three yards out on his first rushing touchdown of the year. Scott Johnson and Terrance Hooks had nine tackles apiece to lead BYU, while Jan Jorgensen and Coleby Clawson each added eight tackles. Holding on to a 21-10 lead, BYU iced the win with 14 minutes left thanks to a fourth-and-one stop by Rich. Unga made sure BYU took advantage of the short field, rushing for 23 yards to the eight before rumbling up the middle on the next play for his second touchdown of the game. Hall found Pitta on a 13-yard out route for BYU's final score of the game.

NO. 18 BYU- 59 UNLV- 21

BYU VS. UNLV RECAP

Led by Harvey Unga's 149 yards rushing and Max Hall's 320 yards passing, No. 18 BYU crushed UNLV, 59-21, at Sam Boyd Stadium in Las Vegas. The team scored early and consistently over the entire game to reach double-digit points in every quarter for the first time since 2006 and only the second time since 1982. The Cougars scored on their first four possessions and never looked back. After driving 70 yards for a 28-yard Mitch Payne field goal on their first drive, the Cougars quickly increased the advantage to 10 points after getting the ball right back thanks to an athletic, one-handed interception by Jordan Pendleton. Two plays later, Unga raced 33 yards to the end zone for the first of his three first-half touchdowns. The MWC's leading rusher added a one-yard score and a 52-yard gallop on BYU's next two possessions to give BYU a 24-7 lead early in the second quarter. Senior safety Scott Johnson joined Pendleton with an interception in the first half, his first career pick and the first of two on the night. The Cougars scored three touchdowns on their four third-quarter possessions with a 35-yard catch by tight end Dennis Pitta, a one-yard run by running back Jo Jo Pili and a 15-yard reception by Di Luigi. O'Neill Chambers raced 97 yards on a kickoff return before being knocked out at the 2-yard line. Reserve quarterback Riley Nelson took his first snap of the game on the next play and used his legs to complete the one-play drive to put BYU up 52-21 with 13:17 remaining. Di Luigi scored a 2-yard touchdown with 8:17 left to complete the scoring.

NO. 18 BYU- 38 SAN DIEGO STATE- 28

BYU VS. SAN DIEGO ST. RECAP

No. 18 BYU outpaced San Diego State, 38-28, at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego with quarterback Max Hall throwing for a season-high 346 yards and running for a career-best 47 yards in the victory. Hall completed 27-of-39 passes, adding three touchdowns while carrying the ball a career-high 14 times, including one touchdown. As BYU approached the end zone at the end of the half, Hall was stopped for no gain at the 1-yard line with the final seconds ticking down. With the coaches motioning from the sideline for Hall to spike the ball to kill the clock, the senior signal caller instead took the snap and rolled left past the unsuspecting Aztec defense and into the end zone as the clock hit 0:00. Hall's improvisation and safety Scott Johnson's diving interception in the end zone to set up that drive were two big plays that helped BYU maintain its advantage. BYU opened the scoring in the game with running back Harvey Unga recording his team-high ninth touchdown on the season. Hall found tight end Andrew George for a 19-yard score in the third quarter. The Cougars took a two-touchdown advantage early in the fourth quarter when Hall rolled right and found Pitta from nine yards out to go up 35-21. Mitch Payne converted a field goal from 44 yards to secure the victory, knocking the attempt dead down the middle to give BYU a 10-point advantage with just over two minutes remaining in the game.

NO. 8 TCU- 38 NO. 16 BYU- 7

BYU VS. TCU GAME RECAP

Homecoming festivities and a visit from ESPN's College GameDay weren't enough to help pull off a win for No. 16 BYU as No. 8 TCU walked out of Provo with a 38-7 win at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Cougar running back Harvey Unga was the highlight of the BYU offense, scoring BYU's lone touchdown in the second quarter. The junior ran 21 times for 122 yards and also recorded three receptions for 11 additional yards. Senior quarterback Max Hall threw for 161 yards, completing 18-of-28 passes and recording one touchdown pass. Tight end Dennis Pitta caught four receptions for 62 yards, leading the Cougars in catches, having done so in 7-of-8 games this season. On the defensive side, junior Andrew Rich totaled eight tackles in the first half alone before finishing with 11, a new career high. Shawn Doman and Matt Bauman also added seven tackles apiece. After a key 23-yard reception on third-down by freshman Brett Thompson, the Cougars began to march in sync late in the second quarter. A pass interference penalty by TCU gave BYU first-and-goal from the five-yard line, setting up Unga for a touchdown on a swing pass right from three yards out on fourth down, to put BYU on the board, 21-7, with just under two minutes left in the first half. Pressure from the Horned Frogs defensive line created difficulties for the Cougars on offense in the second half. Besides being sacked five times, TCU forced BYU into one interception and one lost fumble, converting the two turnovers into a field goal and touchdown, respectively.

NO. 25 BYU- 52 WYOMING- 0

BYU VS. WYOMING RECAP

No. 25 BYU dominated Wyoming 52-0 in Laramie to improve to 7-2 on the year and 4-1 in the Mountain West Conference. Max Hall completed 20-of-22 passes for 312 yards and four touchdowns in just over two quarters of action. After missing the last four games due to injury, wide receiver McKay Jacobson made his presence known in his return, totaling 100 yards receiving, including a 79-yard touchdown reception. All-American tight end Dennis Pitta also set a school record by making a catch in 39 consecutive games. The Cougars were dominating from the opening kickoff, scoring on all five first-half possessions while not allowing a Wyoming first down until the second quarter. Running back J.J. Di Luigi was a top performer early for the Cougars, totaling 72 receiving yards on three catches in the first quarter. BYU opened the game with an 80-yard drive that was capped off with Hall finding Di Luigi down the right sideline for a 44-yard scoring play. Mitch Payne converted a field goal from 36 yards on BYU's next possession. Hall guided BYU to a 31-0 lead at the half with two more touchdown drives. The senior signal caller found Jacobson behind the defense for a 79-yard touchdown with 10:41 to go in the half. Hall then orchestrated a 10-play, 80-yard possession that Manase Tonga culminated with a six-yard run up the middle. The Cougars did not attempt a pass the remainder of the game but reserve quarterback Riley Nelson used his legs to gain 71 yards on 10 carries. BYU's defense created three turnovers with defensive backs Brian Logan and Craig Bills each making interceptions and fellow DB Brandon Bradley forcing a fumble that was recovered by linebacker Shawn Doman.

NO. 22 BYU- 24 NEW MEXICO- 19

BYU VS. NEW MEXICO RECAP

Max Hall tied Ty Detmer for the most career wins by a BYU quarterback as the No. 22 Cougars improved to 8-2 for the fourth straight season with a 24-19 road victory at New Mexico. Hall passed for more than 300 yards for the seventh time in 10 outings this year, totaling 314 yards and two touchdowns while guiding BYU to its 29th win with Hall behind center. On the Lobo side of the ball, New Mexico kicker James Aho had the unique distinction of hitting the goal post upright with three consecutive attempts—none of which fell on the Lobo side of the cross bar. The first quarter came to a close with the score tied at 7-7 after Manase Tonga leapt over the line for the one-yard score. BYU took the lead for good in the second quarter when Mitch Payne converted a 42-yard field goal for a 10-7 advantage. Andrew George helped BYU start to widen its advantage with 1:56 to go in the half when he took a swing pass from Hall 27 yards down the left sideline for a 17-7 Cougar lead. Luke Ashworth closed out the third quarter with a 13-yard touchdown catch to give BYU a 24-13 lead. BYU fumbled the ball to give UNM one last shot at an upset. Fortunately for the Cougars, their defense stepped up with defensive end Jan Jorgensen getting two sacks, the second one assisted by linebacker Coleby Clawson. BYU just needed to run out the clock after Rich brought down a scrambling Porterie on fourth down.

AIR FORCE- 21 NO. 22 BYU- 38

BYU VS. AIR FORCE RECAP

Quarterback Max Hall and running back Harvey Unga rewrote the record books as the No. 22 Cougars improved to 6-1 in Mountain West Conference play and 9-2 overall with a 38-21 win over Air Force at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Hall surpassed former BYU great Ty Detmer on the Cougars' career win list with his 30th victory at the helm for BYU. In addition, Hall's 377 yards passing and 371 yards of total offense propelled the senior past Cougar John Beck's MWC records of 11,021 career passing yards and 11,060 career total offense yards. In just his junior year, Unga set new BYU records for both career rushing yards and career rushing attempts. Unga and Manase Tonga combined for all of the Cougars' positive yardage upfield on an eight-play, 41-yard drive, capped off by Mitch Payne's career-high 49-yard field goal for the first points of the game. The Cougars first capitalized on a fumble by Falcon quarterback Tim Jefferson recovered by linebacker Shawn Doman. Going 69 yards upfield, Hall hit Dennis Pitta in the corner for an 8-yard touchdown. After defensive back Andrew Rich intercepted his second pass of the season, returning the ball 39 yards to the Falcon 16-yard line, Hall wasted no time again finding a wide open Pitta for the tight end's second touchdown, bringing the score to 17-0. Rich added another interception on the last play of the first half. Luke Ashworth grabbed Hall's third touchdown pass of the half, giving BYU a 24-0 lead. O'Neill Chambers caught his first touchdown of the season in the third quarter on a 10-yard slant, while tight end Andrew George finished the scoring with 5:23 left in the game.

BYU VS. UTAH RECAP

BYU senior quarterback Max Hall hit senior tight end Andrew George up the middle in overtime as BYU defeated rival Utah, 26-23, in front of 64,301 fans on senior night at LaVell Edwards Stadium. Wearing throwback jerseys in honor of the 1984 Cougar squad that won the national championship 25 years ago, 19 seniors walked away with the stadium's 200th win. Down 20-6, Utah scored 17 unanswered points in the fourth quarter before kicking a field goal in the Utes' first possession in OT. After a five-yard run by Hall was nullified due to an illegal motion penalty, the senior quarterback slipped a pass right between two diving Utes. George hauled in the pass, turning to find himself with nothing but open field 25 yards for the game-winning score. Hall, a senior, threw two touchdown passes and zero interceptions, going 12-for-32 for 134 yards. After three field goals to open the game, two by Utah and one by BYU, punt returner O'Neill Chambers lit a fire on the Cougar side with a 43-yard punt return. Two plays later, junior running back Harvey Unga rammed through a 2-yard touchdown. Unga rushed for 117 yards, surpassing the 1,000-yard mark on the year and becoming the first Cougar to ever do so for three straight seasons. Andrew Rich returned a pick, his team-leading fourth on the season, 52 yards all the way down to the Utah 23. On the second play of the Cougar drive, senior tight end Dennis Pitta caught his 216th career reception, passing former wide receiver Austin Collie as BYU's all-time leader in career receptions. Mitch Payne capped the drive off with a score, sending a 37-yard kick through the uprights for the 13-6 lead.

OREGON STATE-20 BYU-44

BYU VS. OSU GAME RECAP

A season that started with a win over No. 3 Oklahoma in Dallas ended with an impressive victory over No. 16 Oregon State in Las Vegas as the No. 14 BYU Cougars defeated the Pac-10 second-place Beavers 44-20 at the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas. BYU finished the season with an 11-2 record, including a 3-1 resume against ranked opponents. In the first-ever MAACO Bowl Las Vegas matchup pitting two top-20 teams, the Mountain West Conference runner-up dominated the scoreboard to earn its third 11-win season in the last four years. Only three schools—Boise State, Florida and Texas—have won more games over the last four years while BYU has achieved a 43-9 record. BYU's senior class anchored the win as quarterback Max Hall earned Most Valuable Player honors after completing 19-of-30 passes for 192 yards and three touchdowns. Manase Tonga contributed two touchdowns, while senior tight ends Andrew George and Dennis Pitta led all receivers with 46 and 45 yards, respectively.

Defensively, senior linebacker Matt Bauman recovered a key fumble, returning it 34 yards for a touchdown. The score marked the first fumble recovery for a touchdown in BYU bowl history. Fellow team captain Scott Johnson intercepted an Oregon State pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 56 yards to set up BYU's final touchdown of the game. Collectively the defensive seniors accounted for 28 tackles, four tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble, one interception and four pass breakups. BYU and Oregon State met for the first time in a bowl game and for the first contest since BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall played for the Beavers in 1986. Both teams had to learn to deal with not only each other but also a cold 43-miles-per-hour wind flowing through the north end of Sam Boyd Stadium. Wind gusts of 55 mph created some havoc for the passing and kicking games. BYU punter Riley Stephenson kicked a 60-yard low liner with the wind that was the longest kick of his career and tied a BYU bowl record. Oregon State fell to 8-5 with the loss, ending a streak of five-straight bowl victories by the Beavers.

BYU MODERN FOOTBALL HISTORY

BYU's winning tradition was built by legendary Cougar head coach LaVell Edwards. After taking over the program in 1972, Edwards erected an offensive powerhouse that rewrote the record books and established itself among the nation's elite football programs. Edwards, a two-time NCAA National Coach of the Year and the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history, taught his players and the nation what a passing offense truly was. The Cougar offense passed 103,562 yards (about 59 miles) throughout Edwards' 29 seasons as head coach, and now BYU's football stadium is branded with a namesake worth a lifetime of amazing stories. Since 1972 the Cougars have won 22 conference championships, a national championship in 1984 and 28 postseason appearances. Below are summaries of each season from 1980-2009.

23 TITLES

1980 The school's first 12-win season...
BYU leads the nation in three statistical categories: total offense (535.0), scoring (46.7) and passing (409.8)... quarterback Jim McMahon is named to the Kodak All-America team along with tackle Nick Eyre... McMahon is the first Division I player to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season (4,571)... sets or ties 26 NCAA records, most in total offense and passing... pass efficiency (176.9) was the highest ever... also led the nation in total offense (385.6)... after losing the first game to New Mexico, BYU wins 12 straight ... Cougars win WAC and defeat SMU in Holiday Bowl III by scoring 21 points in the final four minutes.

1981 Another 11-win season for the Cougars... have a 17-game win streak and rank eighth in the polls before losing to Nevada-Las Vegas... BYU leads the nation in passing for the third consecutive year... McMahon earns All-America honors and finishes his career with 70 NCAA records and sets record with all-time high in career pass efficiency (156.9) ... McMahon wins the first Davey O'Brien Award ... Cougars win WAC and play Washington State in Holiday Bowl IV... LaVell coaches West team to a victory in the Hula Bowl... also coaches in the Japan Bowl... Edwards' 86-32-1 record ranks among top 10 in the nation.

1982 BYU expands Cougar Stadium to 65,000 seats and sells out each game... loses home opener to Air Force (39-38) but comes back to win seventh straight WAC title and plays Ohio State in Holiday Bowl V... Gordon Hudson is named consensus All-American... BYU finishes third nationally in total offense... Steve Young is named WAC Offensive Player of the Year.

1983 Another 11-win season... Cougars are ranked seventh in final polls, highest ever for a BYU team... quarterback Steve Young and tight end Gordon Hudson both named consensus All-Americans... after losing to Baylor in the opening game, BYU wins final 11 games... BYU leads the nation in passing and total offense and is second in scoring... Cougars set NCAA total offense record with 584.2 yards per game... BYU wins eighth straight WAC title and defeats Missouri in Holiday Bowl VI... Edwards surpasses the 100-victory milestone... Young wins the Davey O'Brien Award and finishes runner-up for the Heisman.

1984 Cougars win the National Championship by becoming only the third team in NCAA history to win 13 games in a season... win streak is extended to 24 games... quarterback Robbie Bosco leads the nation in passing and finishes second to Doug Flutie in pass efficiency (151.8)... defensive back Kyle Morrell named first team All-American... team leads the nation in passing (346.2) and total offense (486.5)... defensively, Cougars finish 10th in scoring defense... another WAC championship and a victory over Michigan in Holiday Bowl VII... Edwards named NCAA Coach of the Year by most organizations ... Bosco is runner-up for the Davey O'Brien Award and third in the Heisman.

1985 Cougars' defense of the National Championship begins with win over Boston College in the Kickoff Classic... that game plus a bowl and playing at Hawaii allows BYU to become the only collegiate team to play 14 games in a season... defensive tackle Jason Buck is named third team All-American and WAC Defensive Player of the Year... Mark Bellini earns second-team All-America honors... a tie with Air Force for the WAC championship... quarterback Robbie Bosco ranks second in total offense and seventh in pass efficiency... finishes third in the Heisman Trophy balloting... BYU defense ranks 19th against the rush and 18th overall... Cougars lose to Ohio State in the Florida Citrus Bowl and end the season ranked 16th in both polls.

1986 Edwards passes Frank Kush as the winningest coach in WAC football history... Jason Buck becomes only the third player in the Western United States to win the Outland Trophy and is named consensus All-American ... Shawn Knight is also named to several All-American teams ... Lakei Heimuli comes on strong toward the end of the season to break Jeff Blanc's record for career rushing yards... Cougars fail to win WAC championship for the first time in 11 years but post an 8-5 record and play UCLA in the Freedom Bowl.

1987 BYU defense leads the nation with 50 takeaways (28 interceptions and 22 fumble recoveries) with Troy Long getting the most defensive points... after offensive line is decimated in pre-season camp, Cougars bounce back from 1-2 start to win eight of final nine regular season games... Cougars come within a two-point conversion of another WAC title... Chuck Cutler begins the first of two years as a GTE Academic All-America first teamer... Leonard Chitty sets career records for consecutive conversions (42) and for field goals (34)... Cougars rank ninth nationally in passing offense and 22nd in scoring offense... Cougars win Gridiron Bowl (the final regular-season game against Colorado St.) in Melbourne, Australia, but injuries prove costly in the All American Bowl versus Virginia.

1988 Cougars win seven straight but drop to third in WAC race... punter Pat Thompson named All-America and finishes second nationally while team is first in punting and net punting... behind quarterbacks Sean Covey and Ty Detmer, BYU is fourth in passing, 13th in total offense and 13th in scoring... BYU plays second-ranked Miami even for three quarters... Bob Davis is a finalist for the Butkus Award as the country's top linebacker... 11th straight bowl trip (Freedom Bowl) is 20-17 upset over Colorado.

1989 BYU returns to the top of the WAC after a three-year absence... offensive lineman Mohammed Elewonibi becomes the second BYU player in four years to win the Outland Trophy and is consensus All-American... Bob Davis and Chris Smith are named to several All-American teams... Fred Whittingham is first team Academic All-America... sophomore Ty Detmer breaks 11 NCAA records and ties two others... Cougars make 12th straight bowl appearance but drop a tough game to Penn State in the Holiday Bowl.

1990 Ty Detmer, a consensus first team

All-American, becomes the first player in the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy...also wins the Davey O'Brien Award...finishes with 5,188 yards passing—the most ever—and increases his NCAA records to 47... Chris Smith also is consensus All-American and has more reception yards (1,156) than any tight end in history... Andy Boyce gains more yards receiving (1,241) than anyone who has played at BYU... BYU climbed the national polls to as high as No. 7 on Nov. 25th and finished the season ranked No. 24 in both polls ... First-Team All-MWC defensive end Ryan Denney was named to the Academic All-America team and was drafted in the second round by the Buffalo Bills ... All-MWC tight end Doug Jolley was also selected in the second round of the 2002 NFL draft by the Oakland Raiders.

2002 For the first time since 1973 the Cougars finished the regular-season with a sub-.500 record ... coincidentally, the '73 season was the second under legendary coach LaVell Edwards ... his replacement, Gary Crowton, just completed his second season at BYU...for the first time in the four-season history of the MWC, BYU failed to win a conference road game, going 0-3 ... the Cougars combined to post a 9-2 conference road mark through the league's first three seasons ... Matt Berry was the first redshirt freshman quarterback to start at BYU since Ty Detmer in 1988...Brady Poppinga led the MWC with eight sacks for minus 52 yards ... Matt Payne led the country with a punting average of 47.6 yards.

2003 BYU posted back-to-back losing seasons for the first time since 1970-71 before LaVell Edwards took over the reigns of the program ... John Beck became only the second true-freshman to start at quarterback for BYU when he started against Stanford ... Running back Reynaldo Brathwaite recorded the longest run from scrimmage in Cougar history, a 95-yard score against San Diego State ... Freshman tight end Daniel Coats was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-America team after posting 30 receptions for 378 yards and four touchdowns...The Cougars' NCAA-record scoring steak ended at 361 after being shut out 3-0 against Utah in the final game of the season. The last time BYU was shut out was when Arizona State blanked the Cougars 20-0 on September 27, 1975.

2004 BYU posted its third-consecutive losing season, the longest such streak since the Cougars were sub-.500 from 1959-64 ... Despite the losing 5-6 record, BYU finished third place in the Mountain West Conference at 4-3 ... The Cougars' schedule was one of the most difficult in team history, including games against Notre Dame, the defending national champions USC, then-undefeated Boise State and an undefeated University of Utah team ... John Beck and newcomer receivers Todd Watkins and Austin Collie combined to create one of the most potent passing attacks in the league ... Beck threw for 2,563 yards while Watkins, a transfer from Grossmont Junior College caught 52 passes for 1,042 yards and six touchdowns ... Collie, a true freshman, caught a team-high 53 passes for 771 yards and eight touchdowns ... Matt Payne finished his career as second on BYU's all-time scoring list with 312 and set an NCAA record for most consecutive field goals between 40-49 at 14, dating back to the 2002 season ... he also set the school record for most consecutive PATS with 67, dating back to 2002 ... Gary Crowton resigned at the end of the season and replaced by Bronco Mendenhall.

2005 Under the direction of first-year coach Bronco Mendenhall, the Cougars were 6-5 overall in the regular season and finished tied for second in the Mountain West Conference at 5-3 ... BYU earned an invitation to the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl and played California ... The Cougars fell to California, 35-28 ... Mendenhall revamped the coaching staff prior to the season, adding Robert Anae (offensive coordinator), Brandon Doman (quarterbacks coach) and Patrick Higgins (wide receivers coach) ... BYU also switched back to the traditional uniforms, while maintaining the navy blue, worn by all of the great BYU teams with the traditional Y logo on the helmets ... John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown led an offensive attack that was BYU's most potent since 2001, averaging 33.0 points per game (second in the MWC and 24th in the nation) and 462.4 yards of total offense per game ... Beck led the conference and was fifth in the nation in passing yards (309.1 per game) and led the conference in touchdown passes (27) ... Brown also added six 100-yard rushing games to give him 11 for his career, the most in BYU history ... Harline led the team and ranked among the top tight ends in the nation with 63 receptions for 853 yards and five touchdowns ... Beck, Brown and Harline were all named to the All-MWC First Team ... Cameron Jensen led the team in tackles for the second-consecutive year by recording 84.

2006 BYU knocked off 10 straight opponents over the final three months to finish the 2006 season with an 11-2 record ... The Cougars tallied a perfect clip against league opponents to win their first outright Mountain West Conference Championship since the 2001 season ... BYU went on to dismantle Oregon, 38-8, in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl ... The Cougars' 10-game win streak marked the longest since the 2001 season and only the seventh time in the program's history the Cougars have had nine or more consecutive wins in a single season ... BYU earned top-20 rankings in the Associated Press Top-25, the USA Today Coaches Poll, the Harris Interactive Poll and the BCS rankings ... With an impressive win over the Ducks in the Las Vegas Bowl, national voters ranked BYU No. 15 in the final poll of the season ... Under head coach Bronco Mendenhall—the Mountain West Conference and AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year—the Cougars led the MWC and ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, averaging 323.5 yards per game during the regular season. The Cougars also led the league and ranked fourth in the country in total offense, producing an average 465.5 yards per contest. BYU also led the Mountain West and ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense, averaging 36.8 points per game. The BYU offense finished the regular season ranked second nationally in passing efficiency, posting a rating of 167.08 ... Defensively, the Cougars ranked fourth nationally and led the league in turnover margin, averaging +1.08 turnovers per game. BYU also made tremendous strides defensively, ranking 16th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (106.23) and 10th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 14.7 points per game ... BYU outscored its opponents during the regular season by an average 36.8 to 14.7 (+22.1). More impressively, the Cougars posted 138 first-quarter points and held opponents to just 15 points in the opening quarter of play throughout the season. After finishing 3-3 in Provo last season, the Cougars registered a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2006. Not only did the 2006 Cougars finish the season as the most dominant home team in the nation, but also they finished as the most dominant home team in BYU Football history. BYU averaged 47.2 points per game at LaVell Edwards Stadium while holding opponents to just 12.0 points per contest. The +35.16 margin not only led the nation in home scoring margin, but also set a new BYU record, eclipsing the old mark of +34.2 set in 1979.

2007 Head coach Bronco Mendenhall led the 2007 BYU team to its second-straight outright Mountain West title behind another perfect 8-0 MWC season ... BYU's second straight 11-win season was capped with a No. 14 national ranking in both the Associated Press Top-25 and USA Today Coaches Poll ... The season marked the highest finish for the Cougars in the national polls since 1996 ... Behind the arm of All-MWC sophomore quarterback Max Hall and the legs of Freshman All-American Harvey Unga, BYU's all-time leading freshman running back, the Cougars are the only team in Mountain West Conference history to win back-to-back outright league titles and to record back-to-back undefeated league records ... To go along with their 16-game conference win streak, the Cougars boast the nation's longest overall winning streak at 10 games and have won 21 of their last 23 games ... Over the past two seasons, the Cougars have not lost a single home game or a MWC game ... BYU reached its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl victory, 17-16, in dramatic fashion -- with a block on UCLA's potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired ... Mendenhall is the first coach in school history to lead the Cougars to three consecutive bowl games in his first three years as head coach ... Hall, in his first year as a starter, put in the fourth best performance by a first-year quarterback at BYU to date and was the nation's top sophomore quarterback in terms of passing yards ... As the nation's 10th ranked defense, the Cougars allowed just 307.2 yards per game, allowing only one 100-yard rusher all season ... Unga picked up Freshman All-America and MWC Freshman-of-the-Year honors after leading the Cougars with an average of 94.4 yards per game ... Defensive lineman Jan Jorgensen ranked ninth nationally with 13.5 sacks on the season.

BYU'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

After posting a perfect 13-0 season, the Cougars were awarded gold national championship rings after winning the 1984 National Championship.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America. They won the Grantland Rice Trophy and the MacArthur Bowl. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

The dream season featured plays like wide receiver Adam Haysbert's deep touchdown catch at third-ranked Pittsburgh, safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center on a goal-line stand at Hawaii, tight end David Mill's catch with a clouded eye against Wyoming and running back Kelly Smith's winning TD catch against Michigan, who had been ranked second earlier in the season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, junior quarterback Robbie Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the second quarter with an ankle injury and returned taped to play shotgun late in the second quarter. The 24-17 victory over Michigan was the first time a No. 1 team played in a non-New Year's Day bowl. Other injuries throughout the season were to offensive lineman Craig Garrick and circus-catching wide receiver Glen Kozlowski, who came through time and again.

The Cougars ascended to the number one spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then second-ranked South Carolina.

The Cougars rose from no ranking to 12th, sixth, fourth, down to eighth, to fifth for two weeks, back to fourth, then third, back to fourth, again to third and then first in the 1984 campaign. Baylor Coach Grant Teaff, whose team lost at BYU

47-13, in game two, was the first to cast a No. 1 vote for the Cougars.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer, accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddle Tech" schedule.

Fifteen players from the 1984 team were drafted by the National Football League. Seven different teams held the No. 1 spot in 1984, but in the end it belonged to undefeated BYU.

TY DETMER: 1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawaii. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-0, 175, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

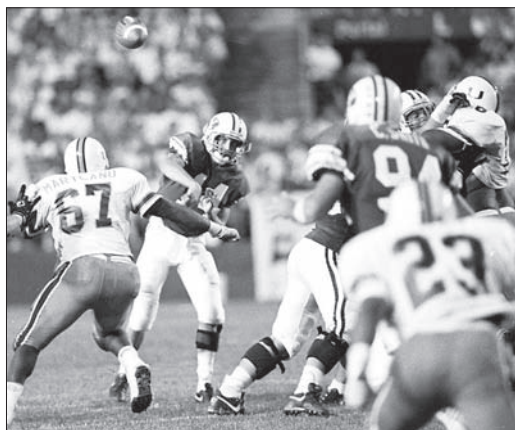

"He had me running around like a chicken with my head cut off. We didn't play that bad, Detmer is just that good."

JASON BUCK • 1986

Transfers Jason Buck, a defensive tackle, and Mohammed Elewonibi, an offensive guard, won the Outland in 1986 and 1989, respectively.

Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, was a quarterback going into junior college at Ricks College. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

MO ELEWONIBI

MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI • 1989

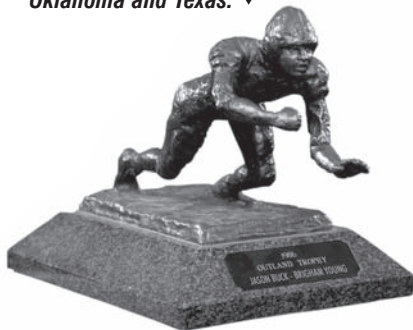

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior.

The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

BYU is one of only 11 schools to have two Outland Trophy winners, joining the likes of Notre Dame, Ohio State, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas. ▼

▲ Two of BYU's greatest interior linemen, Mohammed Elewonibi (bottom, an offensive guard, and Jason Buck (top), a defensive tackle, earned the Outland Trophy award. Elewonibi won the award in 1989 because of his outstanding protection of future Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer. In 1986, Buck, an amazing pass rusher, anchored one of BYU's strongest defensive teams ever. Both players went on to successful professional careers in the NFL.

LUKE STALEY: 2001 DOAK WALKER AWARD WINNER

While his teammates and coaches were watching in their hotel rooms from Hawaii, over 6,000 miles away, BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley was the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNN/ISI—just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great mate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

LAVELL EDWARDS: TWO-TIME NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

• 257 Victories • 19 Conference Titles • 1 National Title

Legendary Cougar coach LaVell Edwards has twice been recognized as one the greatest coaches in college football. The sixth-winningest coach in NCAA football history earned the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 1979 and the Kodak Coach of the Year Award in 1984.

Along with his teams' successes during his coaching tenure, LaVell Edwards accumulated many personal accolades to match. Edwards' first national recognition for his coaching prowess came in 1979 when he was honored with the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. A panel of 11 former college football coaches selected the BYU coach. On the heels of BYU's first national championship five years later, Edwards' coaching peers honored him with what he then called his greatest personal accolade, the Kodak Coach of the Year Award. As successful as his teams were on the field, Edwards' coaching philosophy did not reflect a win-at-all-costs mentality. He didn't bark orders or rule the sideline with an iron fist. Generally, the assistant coaches were delegated the duty of handling the Xs and Os while he saw to the administrative tasks of the program. His personal demeanor also gave him the ability to relate well with his players whether teaching them about football or other more personal matters.

"Just seeing how he handles himself with the media and with people in general ... he's always genuine with them. He treats everybody well," Former BYU quarterback and current BYU athletic administrator Robbie Bosco said. "Those are the things he'll leave with me, more than winning football games."

"In the South there's Bear Bryant, Daryl Royal and Frank Boyles, in the East there's Joe Paterno, in the Midwest there's Bo Schembechler, Woody Hayes and Tom Osborne and in the West there's John McKay and LaVell Edwards. He's a legend. And as good a football coach as he was, he's a better man and he did it the right way. He's known throughout the country as a legend."

SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY

On February 21, 1997, Steve Sarkisian became the seventh BYU quarterback in the past 22 years to win the prestigious Sammy Baugh Trophy. Presented each year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Sammy Baugh Award recognizes the college passer of the year. In winning, Sarkisian joined Gary Sheide (1974), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983), Robbie Bosco (1984) and Ty Detmer (1991) as Cougars who have won the award. Other notables who have won the award include Bob Griese (1966), Don Strock (1972), Tommy Krammer (1976), John Elway (1982), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Steve Walsh (1988), Jeff George (1989), David Klingler (1990), Elvis Grbac (1992), Trent Dilfer (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995), Ryan Leaf (1997), Daunte Culpepper (1998), Chad Pennington (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), David Carr (2001), Kliff Kingsbury (2002), B.J. Symons (2003), Matt Leinart (2004), Brady Quinn (2005), Colt Brennan (2006). BYU has more Sammy Baugh winners than any other university in the nation.

BYU'S QUARTERBACK FACTORY

EVER SINCE GARY SHEIDE IN 1973, BYU HAS PRODUCED AN ASSEMBLY LINE OF OUTSTANDING QUARTERBACKS IN PROVO THAT HAVE EARNED UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS IN THE MARKET OF COLLEGE AND PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks own the NCAA record books and have won the Davey O'Brien award for best quarterback in the nation four times with one runner-up and one third place finish. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon and Steve Young have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in recent years, and several other BYU quarterbacks will likely be added to the list. In the last 20 years, two different BYU quarterbacks (more than any other school) have led their teams to NFL championships (Jim McMahon and Steve Young).

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top five career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years LaVell Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars have led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times. In 2006, Mountain West Conference Player of the Year quarterback John Beck was the No. 4 passer in the nation as he helped lead a resurrection of the storied BYU offense of old. The tradition continued with quarterback Max Hall who was the nation's top-ranked sophomore quarterback in his first season as the starter and was among the top ten in passing yards and passing efficiency his senior year.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that allowed smaller, less physical-type players to win with finesse rather than muscle.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball. The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU has won or tied for the WAC or MWC championship 22 times, played in 28 post-season bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

BYU'S POLYNESIAN TRADITION

POST OKLAHOMA GAME CELEBRATION

BYU's football program has tapped into the Pacific Islands to find players since 1951 when Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawai'i transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55; father of current BYU Offensive Coordinator Robert Anae), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963), John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965). Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders and players who have gone on to compete in the NFL.

Since 1951, hundreds of Polynesian players have suited up for BYU, including 21 that will don the blue and white in 2009. The Cougars' Polynesian players have come from Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's second all-time rushing leader Lakei Heimuli. Six former BYU Polynesian players are currently on NFL rosters.

RAY FEINGA
(ALL-MWVC 2007-08)

TWO-TIME ALL-WAC:
MEKELI IEREMIA

Of the more than 100 Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian, including career leader Harvey Unga. Two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards are also Polynesian. Since 1982, 10 of BYU's season-rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

Some of the many standout Polynesian athletes who excelled on the gridiron for BYU include:

Mekeli Ieremia (1974-1977), Wally Mofifua (1972-1973), Pili Saluone (1970-71), Charles Ah You (1973-74), Keith Uperesa (1974-77), Pisa Finai (1975), Marcus Kanahete (1975-76), Pulusila Filiaga (1979-81), David Aupiu (1979-82), Allen Salanoa (1982), Brad Anae (1980-81), Louis Wong (1982-84), Robert Anae (1982-84), Lakei Heimuli (1983-1986), Kurt Gouveia (1983-85), Ladd Akeo (1984-86), Andy Kato (1984-1987), Steve Kaufusi (1983-86), Thor Salanoa (1985-87), Chris Bisho (1986-1987), Alema Harrington (1986-88), Tau Harrington (1988-1990), Sim Tiatia (1988-90), Tom Tuipulotu (1983-85), Peter Tuipulotu (1989-91), Wayne Faaluafua (1981-1982); Fotu Katoa (1989) Rich Kaufusi (1989-90); Chris Matau (1985-1986); Micah Matsuzaki (1989-1993); Phil Nauahi (1987-1988), Alema Fiteseanu (1985-90), Spencer Reid (1994-97), Gabriel Reid (1999-02), Donny Atuia (1996-1999); Mark Atuia (1991-1996); Justin Ena (1997-2001); Elias Faupula (1994-1995); Setema Gali Jr. (1997-2000); Fred Katoa (1990); Harland Ah You (1995-97), K.O. 2008: BYU'S POLYNESIAN CONTINGENT

TIGHT END TRADITION

Although known as the Quarterback Factory, BYU signal callers wouldn't make the record books without someone on the receiving end of their throws. With BYU's tradition of wide-open offenses, the tight end position has thrived in its offensive scheme.

Tight ends have thrived in the BYU offensive system for years. Like no other school in the nation, BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in BYU's wide-open offense. Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history. Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, ten BYU tight ends have earned All-American status. Since 1976, 12 Cougar tight ends have received 20 First-Team All-Conference citations. In this decade alone nine different Cougar tight ends have made NFL rosters. Four former Cougars helped lead their teams to the Super Bowl—Doug Jolley with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, Chad Lewis with Philadelphia Eagles in 2005, Itula Mili with the Seattle Seahawks in 2006, and Gabriel Reid with the Chicago Bears in 2007. Two former BYU Cougars, Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis, have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers as tight ends. Four of the past five seasons, tight ends have led the Cougars in receptions, and a BYU tight end has been named first team all-conference (Jonny Harline in 2005 and 2006 and Dennis Pitta in 2007, 2008 and 2009) each of the past five years. In 2009, BYU became the first team in conference history to sweep the MWC tight end honors as Andrew George earned All-MWC Second Team accolades while Pitta was a consensus All-American.

▲ Dennis Pitta, the NCAA's career receiving tight end leader, was an NCAA Consensus All-American in 2009.

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

The College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Indiana, has honored six of BYU's Football Greats. The sixth Cougar to be inducted into this prestigious hall is BYU All-American tight end Gordon Hudson.

GORDON HUDSON

Inducted: 2009

Hudson is the sixth former Cougar to be elected to the College Football Hall of Fame. Legendary coach LaVell Edwards was inducted in 2004, while former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen (inducted 1994), Marc Wilson (inducted 1996), Jim McMahon (inducted 1998) and Steve Young (inducted 2001) are also College Football Hall of Famers. Hudson is the first non-quarterback to represent BYU as a player in the Hall. A consensus All-America First Team pick in 1982 and 1983, Hudson is still the NCAA FBS record holder for most passes caught per game by a tight end (5.4) in a career, most career yards per game by a tight end (75.3) and most yards in a single game by a tight end (259). Hudson helped BYU win four conference championships (WAC) and earn four Holiday Bowl invitations during his career from 1980-83. He totaled 2,484 receiving yards and 22 touchdowns during his All-American career.

STEVE YOUNG

Inducted: 2005

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Steve Young was consistently at the top of all the nation's statistical categories for quarterbacks en route to setting 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player of the Year honors. In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306-of-429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. Few rival Young's career totals. He completed 592-of-907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and his 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games is among college football's all-time greatest career numbers. A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community -- a tradition he maintains today with the successful Forever Young Foundation. Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to the Super Bowl Championship in 1995, earning Most Valuable Player honors. He was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

LAVELL EDWARDS

Inducted: 2004

A coaching icon whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU--a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17-straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him sixth in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards compiled a program best .716 win percentage, coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans--not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL. BYU's success didn't come without personal reward for Edwards either. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "A spectacular choice," Steve Young said. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality. In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

JIM MCMAHON

Inducted: 1998*

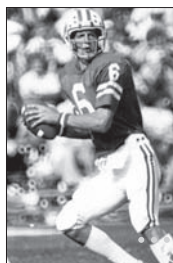

In 1998 Jim McMahon (1977-78, 80-81) joined former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen and Marc Wilson, who were inducted into the National Football Foundation Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1994 and 1996, respectively. McMahon set 75 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 First Team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers Association of America, and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned First team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 school records, was MVP of the 1980 and 1981 Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes during his career at BYU. McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champions, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

MARC WILSON

Inducted: 1996*

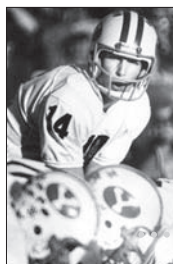

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set ten NCAA records. The 6-5, 204 pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its Post Graduate Scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots. Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Washington with their four children.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

Inducted: 1994*

Nicknamed the "Mormon Rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win by completing 10 of 12 passes. "From that point on," Nielsen said, "everything clicked, and it's just amazing what happened." As a junior in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-American. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked. "It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game. Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

Established in 1947 by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc., the first class was inducted in 1951. In order to be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a nominated player must be out of college at least ten years and a first team All-America selection by a major selector during his career. The voting is done by a 12-member panel made up of athletic directors, conference and bowl officials and media representatives. The College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Indiana, and is open year round. For more information visit <http://collegefootball.org/>.

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-214. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahan sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahan ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, and blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. But Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

SCORING:

OSU – Spangler 47-yard field goal

BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)

OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spanglkr kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

 BYU – Whittingham 8-yd run (pass failed)
 UVA – Ford 22-yd pass from Secules (Wilson pass)
 BYU – Whittingham 1-yd pass from Covey (Chitty kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season mark for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia coach George Welsh was head coach of Navy, which beat BYU 23-16 in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 19 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU, which trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining, scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the touchdown. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14, 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard-line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters out-numbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard Hail Mary pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32-yards to James Dye and 28-yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omar Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into tenth-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartz to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blind-side corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. To cap off his MVP performance, Chapman scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The champions of the MWC faced Louisville, the champions of Conference USA. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return of the opening kickoff. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone twice more themselves. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing.

GAME SUMMARY:

Trailing 35-14 in the fourth quarter, BYU stormed back with two touchdowns and had the ball with 2:20 remaining, but John Beck was intercepted after he was hit when releasing the ball, ending the Cougars' comeback hopes. Beck had a record-setting performance, completing 35-of-53 attempts for 352 yards and three touchdowns. The 35 completions, 53 attempts and 352 yards were all Las Vegas Bowl records. Nathan Meikle caught a game-high 12 passes for 95 yards while Jonny Harline had seven receptions for 73 yards and one score and Todd Watkins added five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown. BYU fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter but scored early in the second when Beck found Curtis Brown for a 19-yard touchdown pass. California scored again but Fahu Tahī scored on a three-yard run to tie the game at 14 with 38 seconds left in the second quarter. The Golden Bears struck again before the half, going 58 yards in 27 seconds to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room. In the fourth, Beck engineered a 74-yard drive that ended with Harline scoring and then a 96-yard drive that ended with Watkins catching a nine-yard touchdown pass from Beck. California's ensuing drive ended with a missed field goal and the Cougars had a chance to tie but the drive ended on Beck's interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 2006 BYU championship run ended with a Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl championship as the Cougars (11-2) dominated Oregon (7-6), 38-8, to finish the season with a 10-game winning streak in front of a Sam Boyd Stadium record crowd of 44,615. The Mountain West Conference champion BYU team set a school record for margin of victory in a bowl game, beating the Ducks by 30 points. Previously, the largest margin of victory for a BYU team in a bowl game was a 25-point defeat of Oklahoma in the 1994 Copper Bowl. BYU dominated all facets of the game, out-gaining Oregon 548 total yards to 260 total yards. BYU passed for 375 compared to Oregon's 166 and rushed for 173 compared to the Ducks 94. BYU seniors John Beck, Jonny Harline and Curtis Brown finished their careers in style. Beck completed 28-of-46 passes for 375 yards and two touchdowns. Harline, who was named Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl MVP, caught nine passes for a career-best--and Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl record--181 yards and a touchdown. Brown had 17 carries for 120 yards and two touchdowns and also caught seven passes for 55 yards. Brown also became the first BYU runner to rush for over 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Beck and Brown became the first quarterback/running back combo to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in the same season twice.

GAME SUMMARY:

No. 17 BYU (11-2) won its second consecutive Las Vegas Bowl, 17-16, against UCLA (6-7) in dramatic fashion -- by blocking the Bruins' potential game-winning field goal attempt as time expired. With only three ticks on the clock, true freshman Eathyn Manumaleuna extended his right hand at the right time to block UCLA's potential game-winning, 28-yard field goal as time expired to create what will be known as one of the most memorable bowl finishes in BYU Football history. The victory also avenged an early-season loss to the Bruins -- one of only two losses the Cougars suffered during the season. The Cougars, who finish the 2007 season on a 10-game winning streak, were led by sophomores Max Hall and Austin Collie. Hall threw 21-35 for 231 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore receiver Austin Collie was named the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl Most Valuable Player after racking up a game-high 107 yards on six receptions. Collie's 14-yard touchdown reception from Max Hall with 10:32 left in the second quarter gave the Cougars a 10-3 advantage. He was also credited with a game-high 195 all-purpose yards, including three kick returns for a total of 88 yards. The win marked the first time BYU has won back-to-back bowl games since the 1994 Copper Bowl and the 1996 Cotton Bowl. The win over UCLA extended the Cougars' win streak to 10 straight games, which marked the nation's longest active winning streak.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU totaled 444 yards of total offense compared to Arizona's 416, but the No. 16 Cougars fell short of their third-straight bowl victory, falling 31-21 to the Arizona Wildcats in the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl at Sam Boyd Stadium on Dec. 20. Trailing late in the game, BYU put pressure on Arizona with a comeback attempt when the Cougars followed a touchdown with a successful on-side kick. Wide receiver O'Neill Chambers recovered the ball for BYU, but the ensuing field-goal attempt hit the upright and left the Wildcats with a two-possession lead, enough to hold on for the win. Despite the loss, the Cougars boasted two 100-yard receivers for only the third time on the season with wideouts Austin Collie and Michael Reed recording 119 and 117 yards, respectively. With his performance, Collie continued to set BYU records in career receptions (215) and single-season receptions (106). The All-American receiver also tied a NCAA single-season record held with Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree with his 11th consecutive 100-yard receiving game. BYU quarterback Max Hall completed 30-of-46 passes for 328 yards and one touchdown pass. He also scrambled into the end zone for a 1-yard touchdown with 3:38 remaining in the game. Sophomore running back Harvey Unga recorded a rushing touchdown for the Cougars and ended the night with 71 yards on 17 carries. The Cougars finished the year 10-3 while the Wildcats improved to 8-5. BYU is one of only seven programs in the nation to win 10 or more games each of the past three seasons. The Cougars last accomplished the feat from 1983-85. A crowd of 40,047 watched the game, marking the fourth-highest attendance at a Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl and the seventh-best attendance in Sam Boyd Stadium history.

GAME SUMMARY:

A season that started with a win over No. 3 Oklahoma in Dallas ended with an impressive victory over No. 16 Oregon State in Las Vegas as the No. 14 BYU Cougars defeated the Pac-10 second-place Beavers 44-20 at the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas. BYU finished the season with an 11-2 record, including a 3-1 resume against ranked opponents. In the first-ever MAACO Bowl Las Vegas matchup pitting two top-20 teams, the Mountain West Conference runner-up dominated the scoreboard to earn its third 11-win season in the last four years. Only three schools—Boise State, Florida and Texas—have won more games over the last four years while BYU has achieved a 43-9 record. BYU's senior class anchored the win as quarterback Max Hall earned Most Valuable Player honors after completing 19-of-30 passes for 192 yards and three touchdowns. Manase Tonga contributed two touchdowns, while senior tight ends Andrew George and Dennis Pitta led all receivers with 46 and 45 yards, respectively. Defensively, senior linebacker Matt Bauman recovered a key fumble, returning it 34 yards for a touchdown. The score marked the first fumble recovery for a touchdown in BYU bowl history. Fellow team captain Scott Johnson intercepted an Oregon State pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 56 yards to set up BYU's final touchdown of the game. Collectively the defensive seniors accounted for 28 tackles, four tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble, one interception and four pass breakups. BYU and Oregon State met for the first time in a bowl game and for the first contest since BYU head coach Bronco Mendenhall played for the Beavers in 1986. Both teams had to learn to deal with not only each other but also a cold 43-miles-per-hour wind flowing through the north end of Sam Boyd Stadium. Wind gusts of 55 mph created some havoc for the passing and kicking games. BYU punter Riley Stephenson kicked a 60-yard low liner with the wind that was the longest kick of his career and tied a BYU bowl record. Oregon State fell to 8-5 with the loss, ending a streak of five-straight bowl victories by the Beavers.

Former All-American receiver Austin Collie made the transition to the NFL look easy. On the receiving end of Peyton Manning's passes, Collie led all NFL rookies in 2009 in receiving touchdowns and receptions.

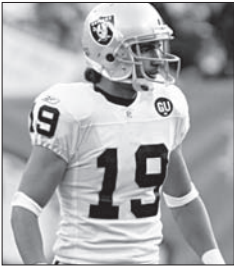

BYU'S NFL DRAFT FACTS

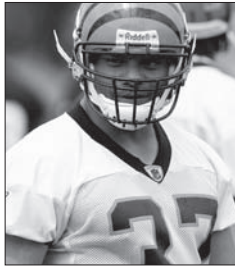

- The Cougars have had 10 players selected in the first round of the draft, including eight different players who were drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft, and one player selected in the first round of the USFL Draft (Steve Young).
- Dennis Pitta became the 10th BYU tight end picked in the NFL Draft and the fourth since 2001. The consensus All-American was the 16th pick in the fourth round, 114th overall by the Baltimore Ravens. Pitta is the first Cougar to be selected by the Ravens.
- BYU has had 66 players drafted over the past 24 years, including 38 players over the past 18 years.
- Four members of the BYU coaching staff were selected in the NFL or USFL Draft, including Lance Reynolds (1978, Pittsburgh Steelers), Robert Anae (1985, New Jersey Generals), Steve Kaufusi (1988, Philadelphia Eagles) and Brandon Doman (2002, San Francisco 49ers.) Additionally, two BYU athletic department administrators were also selected in the NFL Draft, including Robbie Bosco (1986, Green Bay Packers) and Tom Holmoe (1983, San Francisco 49ers).
- Over the past 23 seasons, 37 offensive players from BYU have been drafted, as well as 27 defensive players and two special teams players.
- BYU's all-time leading receiver Austin Collie was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. A 6-foot-2, 206-pound wide receiver, Collie was the 27th pick of the fourth round and the 127th overall selection. In his rookie year, Collie was named to the All-Rookie team, catching 60 receptions for 676 yards and seven touchdowns including 6 catches for 66 yards in Super Bowl XLIV.
- Fui Vakapuna was the 20th running back taken and in the 2009 NFL Draft. He becomes the 10th Cougar running back to be drafted by the NFL and the first since Doak Walker Award winner Luke Staley was a seventh-round pick by the Detroit Lions in 2002.

TOP OF THE CLASS: BYU's rich football tradition has bred some of the top football minds in the country. Two former BYU players and coaches are leading successful careers in the NFL. Former BYU offensive lineman Andy Reid led the resurgent Philadelphia Eagles into Super Bowl in 2004. Former BYU assistant coach under LaVell Edwards, Mike Holmgren, won a world championship when he led his Green Bay Packers to the 1997 Super Bowl title.

TRUE BLUE COUGARS: Chris Hoke (Steelers), Ryan Denney (Bills), and Brett Keisel (Steelers) were once teammates at BYU and have had an impact in the NFL. Heading into 2010, 20 Cougars are on NFL rosters. Six NFL teams have multiple Cougars on their rosters (Ravens, Bengals, Dolphins, Raiders, Steelers, Panthers)

The 2010 BYU Football Almanac has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. Additionally information, including bios on all players, are available via the online media guide at byucougars.com. Should you require additional information, such as photographs, video or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent from the editor or sports director via Official Company Communication to: Brett Pyne, brett_pyne@byu.edu or BYU Athletic Communications; 30 SFH; Provo, UT 84602. Fax requests may be sent to (801) 422-0633.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game. Requests received later than noon on the day prior to the game will not be accepted. Credentials for working media, including print and electronic (radio & television) media outlets, are restricted in accordance with BYU, Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules and guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

PRESS BOX

Working press box credentials shall be issued only to accredited newspaper, radio and television reporters only. Requests from other media sources shall be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. Reporters representing newspapers with next-day editions, daily editions, national magazines, wire services, live television and radio broadcasts and television and radio stations covering for nightly news shall be given priority. Spouses, dates, children and other non-working persons will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines.

Credentials must be displayed prominently throughout the game, including pre- and post-game coverage. Pre-game interviews with players and/or coaches will not be permitted under any circumstances. Properly credentialed media representatives shall be allowed field access with four minutes remaining on the game clock. Interviews with players and/or coaches may not be conducted until the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period has expired. Individuals or organizations violating this policy may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium.

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment from a credentialed media outlet, are not eligible for sideline credentials.

All Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yardlines. Sideline supervisors will patrol both sidelines to make certain all rules are enforced. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Mark Philbrick at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via either the north or south elevators with media credentials.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs, game stats, post-game quotes and media guides for both teams.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the post-game press conference. BYU Head Coach Bronco Mendenhall and selected players will be available in the media room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to all media.

The BYU press box is also equipped with high-speed internet access. Wireless passwords will be provided with other game materials to media working in the press box.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

During the season, all player, coach and AD staff interviews must be scheduled through Brett Pyne or a member of the Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. Interview requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players and coaches may be conducted following selected practices during the week. Players and coaches will not be available for interview prior to practice. Telephone interviews for out-of-town media can be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. Interviews with players are not permitted after Wednesday each game week. No player interviews will be conducted during regular class hours.

WEB SITES

To have access to athletes, coaches, practice, games, etc., Internet sites must be held to the same professional standards required of traditional media. Website personnel must show caution, restraint and professional judgment in covering potential student-athletes and the recruiting process. Websites covering BYU recruiting must be familiar with and follow all NCAA rules. Proper judgment and an understanding of NCAA rules must be displayed at all times. Access will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Failure to adhere to the standards and regular media policies established by the BYU Athletic Communications office may result in the loss of privileges. Live, real-time updates will not be permitted. Websites interested in seeking credentials or access should contact the Athletic Communications office for specific rules and guidelines.

SPORTS RADIO

All interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will not facilitate the broadcast of live guests during regular class hours. All interviews for sports talk radio must be conducted with players after practice or during the weekly media luncheon. Radio stations will be responsible for attending after-practice media availability to obtain interviews. Sports talk radio stations will be issued one credential per home game.

WEEKLY MEDIA INTERVIEWS

Each Monday, Coach Mendenhall and selected players will be available for interview purposes at 10 a.m. in the Student Athlete Building. All live electronic interviews are for credentialed media only and must be arranged in advance with the Athletic Communications office.

Coach Mendenhall will participate in the MWC weekly teleconference on Tuesdays, beginning at 11 a.m. (MT).

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Media Communications department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

TELEVISION PARTNERS

In the fall of 2006, CBS College Sports Network and the MWC kicked off an unprecedented 14-year relationship to offer the most in-depth coverage ever centered around one Division I-A conference. The centerpiece of this historic relationship is the launch of The Mtn. (“The Mountain”)—MountainWest Sports Network, the first-ever sports network serving a collegiate athletic conference 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. On July 19, 2006, Comcast was named an equity partner in The Mtn.

The Mtn. delivers more access to MWC sports coverage than has ever been offered before and brings fans more coverage of the teams, rivalries and action of the MWC. In addition to live game coverage, fans get a comprehensive array of news, features and analysis about their favorite MWC teams and players. Together, CBS College Sports Network and The Mtn. showcase the passion and pageantry of the Mountain West Conference while delivering 24/7 coverage to fans across the nation.

CBS College Sports Network, part of CBS Corporation, connects more fans to more college sports than any other company and is now available to more than 84 million households across the nation. In addition, CBS College Sports Network offers a variety of original programming and studio shows featuring expert analysis and in-depth coverage of the Mountain West Conference, in addition to the entire landscape of college football.

Another broadcast partner with the Mountain West Conference is VERSUS. Now in more than 75 million homes, the network is the national cable home of the National Hockey League (NHL) and the Stanley Cup Playoffs as well as best-in-class events like The Tour de France, the Professional Bull Riders (PBR), World Extreme Cagefighting (WEC) and Professional Boxing. The network also offers collegiate sports from top conferences such as the Mountain West, Big 12, Pac-10 and Ivy League. VERSUS, a wholly owned company of Comcast Corporation, is distributed via cable systems and satellite operators throughout the United States.

Direct TV, the nation’s leading satellite television service provider, launched The Mtn. on Aug. 27, 2008. Fans from across the country have the ultimate access to Mountain West Conference sports through Direct TV.

The Mtn. is available on channel 616 on DIRECTV CHOICE™ and above packages for the states servicing Mountain West Conference institutions (Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming and the designated market areas of Dallas/Fort Worth and San Diego). Customers throughout the remainder of the country can access The Mtn. with a subscription to DIRECTV’s Sportspack.

RADIO

The exclusive radio home of BYU Football and flagship of the Cougar Sports Network is KSL Newsradio in Salt Lake City. The “Voice of the Cougars” is Greg Wrubell, now in his 10th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU alum, Wrubell is in his 19th year on the broadcast crew, having served as the sideline reporter before stepping into the booth.

Wrubell’s on-air partner and game analyst is ex-Cougar quarterback Marc Lyons, who begins his 30th season on the BYU Football broadcasts. Former Cougar defensive back and 2009 team captain Scott Johnson makes his debut reporting from the sidelines, while Andrew Adams returns for his third season as gameday host in the “Cougar Scoreboard Studio.”

In addition to its comprehensive gameday coverage, KSL broadcasts “BYU Football with Head Coach Bronco Mendenhall” Wednesday nights at 7 p.m. throughout the season. Additional BYU Football coverage can be read and heard exclusively online at ksl.com, which also streams every BYU game live to a passionate worldwide audience.

CollegePressBox.com

CollegePressBox. collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Mountain West Conference football.

Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its nine member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

TV/COACHES SHOW

Brigham Young University and KSL-5 Television continue their rich tradition of bringing the very best from BYU Football to our community., highlighted by “BYU Football with Coach Bronco Mendenhall” each and every Sunday during the season. The show promises the very latest on the Cougar team with comprehensive coverage of all Cougar home and road games. The show includes highlights of the latest game, insights from Coach Mendenhall on that game, a preview of the next BYU game and features on current and former Cougar players.
